ANIMAL PROJECT RECORD: One project record is needed for one project animal that a youth has. If showing more than one species the 4-H'ers should only pick one animal. If showing a market animal, the market records will replace the project record. Try to finish project records as completely as possible.

- A continuous record should be kept on projects animals from one year to the next. Recording dates should start October 1st and end Sept 30 of the current 4-H year.
- Records for purchased animals should begin when that animal enters your herd, or for leased animals when the leasing period begins.
- The project ends the day the animal is sold.
- A complete project record must be submitted to the 4-H office no later than the Saturday of the Cortland Jr. Fair of the current 4-H year to receive fair premiums, and to be entered into County Medal consideration in the animal area a 4-H member has participated in.
