SECTION 15 – SPECIAL CONTEST
CLOVERBUDS - MONDAY, JULY 5th – 12:30 PM – In Place

#171 CLOVERBUD ANIMAL POSTER CONTEST

The goal of this poster contest is to allow Cloverbuds an opportunity to learn about domesticated animals. The learning process can be through books, field trips, online websites, interviewing people knowledgeable about the animal, or their personal experiences.

- Cloverbuds are to exhibit a poster illustrating information they have learned this year about a particular animal. A Cloverbud may exhibit one poster on one animal category. Examples of topics can include, but not limited to, breeds, how to care for, similarities/differences between breeds or species, costs to raise, body parts, uses of the animal (i.e., sheep's wool, goat milk, cheese, or meat), identification, or interesting facts.
- Categories include: Cats, Cows, Dogs, Goats, Horses/Ponies, Poultry, Guinea Pigs, Rabbits, Sheep, or Swine.

ALL CLOVERBUD POSTERS MUST MEET THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS:

- Poster dimensions are to be 14-inches by 22-inches (half of a standard 22-inch by 28-inch poster board).
- Poster must be made to be displayed horizontally; meaning the 22-inch side is horizontal.
- Posters will be hung at fair with clips on the top corners—keep that in mind when designing your poster.
- Poster Board Color: You may use any color poster board you think would look good for your poster.
- Mounting Adhesives: Glue sticks that dry clear work well. Double-stick tape works in some cases. Do not use white liquid glue because it wrinkles the paper and is too messy.
- Poster Title: Center the title at the top of your poster.
